U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On April 17, 2012, Mr. Habermann released from Bureau of Prisons custody to the Central District of California and has been supervised with that district to date. On June 12, 2012, Mr. Habermann submitted a urine specimen that was found to contain alcohol. As a result of this violation, Mr. Habermann has been returned to the most intensive phase of drug testing and has been encouraged to seek community based support through his private therapist.

U.S. Probation Officer Sharon Summers is recommending no formal Court action this time, and is requesting that jurisdiction of this case be transferred to the Southern District of California in order to facilitate supervision. If the Court concurs, it is recommended that no formal Court action take place as a result of this violation. It is also respectfully requested that Your Honor sign the Order Transferring Jurisdiction on both originals attached. Both originals, if signed, will be sent to the Central District of California for signature accepting jurisdiction.

I swear under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 3rd day of July, 2012.

Christopher S. Luscher
Supervising U.S. Probation Officer
